ANOTHER BOLD HOLDUP.

Loboring Man Robbed by Footpads in Depot Yards.

Eugene V. Debs Addresses Large Audience on the Labor Situation-District Court Notes.

A laborer giving his name as Johnson at the police station, was held up last evening by two highwaymen the depot yards and relieved of $22. The man came into town, with the amount of money mentioned from the grading camps out on the Southern Pacific. He was walking through the epot yards about 9 o'clock, when two men approached him and told him to hold up his hands, each pointing a pistol at his head. The man complied with the demand and one of the hollups went through his pockets, securing all the money he had. Johnson immediately went to the police station and reported the affair, two of the officers went down to the yards and arrested several hobos who were taken to the police station and locked up. They could not be identified. There appears to be an organized gang of holdups working Ogden at the present time and being old hands at the business, are keeping out of the officers' sight. DEBS ADDRESSES LARGE CROWD.

Eugene V. Debs, one of the most notabor leaders of the world, spoke last evening in this city to a large audience on the city hall square. The gentleman is a good speaker. He dwelt length on the small wages received by the laboring classes, and the feeling of dissatisfaction that exists among the aborers. He also spoke of the great machinery that is being invented and used in the world, and of the thousands men who are being turned out of work by the use of machinery. He urged the necessity of the laboring people receiving higher wages so that they can support themselves and families.
